TEACHING EXPERIENCE

The Vancouver School of Art (not on faculty): foundation courses (painting; drawing; art history).
The Vancouver Art Gallery: Curatorial/Education Dept. — organizing and lecturing on travelling exhibits (see below).
Coquitlam College, Coquitlam, British Columbia: teaching art in English-as-Second-Language college program.

ART GALLERY EXPERIENCE

The Vancouver Art Gallery Extension Program: Job included the curating of exhibitions for travel and installation in a variety of galleries throughout the Pacific Northwest. Also handled all research and the arranging of publicity (including the design of signage and posters). Was involved closely with the gallery registrar, and in assisting with the packaging and crating of the artwork for travel. Directly responsible for dealing with a variety of other institutions (galleries, libraries, schools, etc.), and for the hanging and presentation of these exhibitions. Teaching and lecturing about the content of the exhibitions was also a frequent responsibility. Artwork presented in these exhibitions was both historical and contemporary and represented a wide range of local and international artists.

ALSO: The artist is an active musician, playing regularly in the clubs of New York City and Ottawa, Canada.
